

GGG IP University, New Delhi
Anti-Ragging Regulation

1. Title, Commencement and Applicability

1.1 These regulations shall be called the "Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in the University and its Affiliated Institutions".

1.2 They shall come into force from the date of their notification by the University.

1.3 They shall apply to Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, New Delhi and all the institutions affiliated to Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, New Delhi, including the elements of the University and Institutions such as the departments, constituent units and all the premises, whether being academic, residential, playgrounds, canteen, or other such premises of the University and affiliated institutions, whether located within the campus or outside, and to all means of transportation of students, whether public or private, accessed by students for the pursuit of studies in the University and its affiliated institutions.

2. Objectives

To prohibit any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student, or indulging in rowdy or indisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological/Physical harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student or asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student, with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student; and thereby, to eliminate ragging in all its forms from the Universities and its affiliated institutions, preventing its occurrence and punishing those who indulge in ragging as provided for in these Regulations and the appropriate law for the time being in force.

3. What constitutes Ragging: For the purpose of these regulations the expression "Ragging" would mean and include the following:

- a. any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student;

- b. indulging in rowdy or indisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student;
- c. asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student;
- d. any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher;
- e. exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students;
- f. any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students;
- g. any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;
- h. any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to fresher or any other student ;
- i. any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

4. Measures for Prevention of Ragging at the Institutional Level

4.1: The University and all its affiliated institutions shall take the following steps in regard to admission or registration of students; namely,

- a. Every public declaration of intent by any institution, in any electronic, audiovisual or print or any other media, for admission of students to any course of study shall expressly provide that ragging is totally prohibited in The University and its affiliated institutes, and anyone found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, whether actively or passively, or being a part of a conspiracy to promote ragging, is liable to be punished in accordance with these Regulations as well as under the provisions of any penal law for the time being in force.
- b. The brochure of admission/instruction booklet or the prospectus, whether in print or electronic format, shall prominently print these Regulations in full. Provided that The University and its affiliated institutes shall also draw attention to any law concerning ragging and its consequences, as may be applicable to the University and its affiliated institutes publishing such brochure of admission/instruction booklet or the prospectus. Provided further that the telephone numbers of the Anti-Ragging Helpline and all the important functionaries in the University and its affiliated institutes, including but not limited to the Head of the institution, faculty members, members of the Anti-Ragging Committees and Anti-Ragging Squads, Wardens of hostels, and other functionaries or authorities where relevant, shall be published in the brochure of admission/instruction booklet or the prospectus.

- c. The application form for admission, enrolment or registration shall contain an undertaking, mandatorily in English and/or in Hindi to be filled up and signed by the applicant to the effect that he/she has read and understood the provisions of these Regulations as well as the provisions of any other law for the time being in force, and is aware of the prohibition of ragging and the punishments prescribed, both under penal laws as well as under these Regulations and also affirm to the effect that he/she has not been expelled and/or debarred by any institution and further aver that he/she would not indulge, actively or passively, in the act or abet the act of ragging and if found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, is liable to be proceeded against under these Regulations or under any penal law or any other law for the time being in force and such action would include but is not limited to debarment or expulsion of such student.
- d. The application form for admission, enrolment or registration shall contain an undertaking, mandatorily in English and/or in Hindi to be filled up and signed by the parents/guardians of the applicant to the effect that he/she has read and understood the provisions of these Regulations as well as the provisions of any other law for the time being in force, and is aware of the prohibition of ragging and the punishments prescribed, both under penal laws as well as under these Regulations and also affirm to the effect that his/her ward has not been expelled and/or debarred by any institution and further aver that his/her ward would not indulge, actively or passively, in the act or abet the act of ragging and if found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, his/her ward is liable to be proceeded against under these Regulations or under any penal law or any other law for the time being in force and such action would include but is not limited to debarment or expulsion of his/her ward.
- e. The application for admission shall be accompanied by a document in the form of, or annexed to, the School Leaving Certificate/Transfer Certificate/Migration Certificate/Character Certificate reporting on the inter-personal/social behavioural pattern of the applicant, to be issued by the school or institution last attended by the applicant, so that the University and its affiliated institutes can thereafter keep watch on the applicant, if admitted, whose behaviour has been commented in such document.
- f. A student seeking admission to a hostel forming part of the University or affiliated institution, or seeking to reside in any temporary premises not forming part of the University and its affiliated institutes, including a private commercially managed lodge or hostel, shall have to submit additional undertaking countersigned by his/her parents/guardians in the form prescribed in Annexure I and Annexure II to these Regulations respectively along with his/her application.
- g. Before the commencement of the academic session in the University or its affiliated institution the Vice Chancellor or the Head/Director/Chairman of the University and its affiliated institutes shall convene and address a meeting of various functionaries/agencies, such as Hostel Wardens, representatives of students, parents/guardians, faculty, to discuss the measures to be taken to prevent ragging in the University and its affiliated institutes and steps to be taken to identify those indulging in or abetting ragging and punish them.
- h. The University and its affiliated institutions shall, to make the community at large and the students in particular aware of the dehumanizing effect of ragging, and the approach of the University and its affiliated institutes towards those indulging in ragging, prominently display posters depicting the provisions of penal law applicable to incidents of ragging, and the provisions of these Regulations and also any other law for the time being in force, and the punishments thereof, shall be prominently displayed on Notice Boards of all departments, hostels and other buildings as well as at places, where students normally gather and at places, known to be vulnerable to the occurrences of ragging incidents.

- i. The University and its affiliated institutions shall request the media to give adequate publicity to the law prohibiting ragging and the negative aspects of ragging and the University and its affiliated institutes's resolve to ban ragging and punish those found guilty without fear or favour.
- j. The University and its affiliated institutions shall identify, properly illuminate and keep a close watch on all locations known to be vulnerable to occurrences of ragging incidents.
- k. The University and its affiliated institutions shall tighten security in its premises, especially at vulnerable places and intense policing by Anti-Ragging Squad, referred to in these Regulations and volunteers, if any, shall be resorted to at such points at odd hours during the first few months of the academic session.
- l. The University and its affiliated institutions shall utilize the vacation period before the start of the new academic year to launch a publicity campaign against ragging through posters, leaflets and such other means, as may be desirable or required, to promote the objectives of these Regulations.
- m. The University and its affiliated institutions shall have induction arrangements, including those which anticipate, identify and plan to meet any special needs of any specific section of students, in place well in advance of the beginning of the academic year with an aim to promote the objectives of this Regulation.
- n. The University and its affiliated institutions shall engage or seek the assistance of professional counsellors before the commencement of the academic session, to be available when required by the University and its affiliated institutes, for the purposes of offering counselling to freshers and to other students after the commencement of the academic year.

4.2 The University and its affiliated institutions shall, on admission or enrolment or registration of students, take the following steps, namely,

- a. Every fresh student admitted to the University and its affiliated institutes shall be given a printed leaflet detailing to whom he/she has to turn to for help and guidance for various purposes including addresses and telephone numbers, so as to enable the student to contact the concerned person at any time, if and when required, of the Anti-Ragging Helpline referred to in these Regulations, Wardens, Head of the institution, all members of the anti-ragging squads and committees, relevant district and police authorities.
- b. The University and its affiliated institutions, through the leaflet specified in clause (a) of Regulation 4.2 of these Regulations shall explain to the freshers, the arrangements made for their induction and orientation which promote efficient and effective means of integrating them fully as students with those already admitted to the University and its affiliated institutes in earlier years.
- c. The leaflet specified in clause (a) of Regulation 4.2 of these Regulations shall inform the freshers about their rights as bona fide students of the University and its affiliated institutes and clearly instruct them that they should desist from doing anything, with or against their will, even if ordered to by the seniors students, and that any attempt of

- ragging shall be promptly reported to the Anti-ragging Squad or to the Warden or to the Head of the University and its affiliated institutes, as the case may be.
- d. The leaflet specified in clause (a) of Regulation 4.2 of these Regulations shall contain a calendar of events and activities laid down by the University and its affiliated institutes to facilitate and complement familiarization of freshers with the academic environment of the University and its affiliated institutes.
  - e. The University and affiliated institutions shall, on the arrival of senior students after the first week or after the second week, as the case may be, schedule orientation programmes as follows, namely;
    - i. joint sensitization programme and counselling of both freshers and senior students by a professional counsellor, referred to in clause (n) of Regulation 4.1 of these Regulations;
    - ii. joint orientation programme of freshers and seniors to be addressed by the Head of the University and its affiliated institutes and the anti-ragging committee;
    - iii. organization on a large scale of cultural, sports and other activities to provide a platform for the freshers and seniors to interact in the presence of faculty members;
    - iv. in the hostel, the warden should address all students; and may request two junior colleagues from the college faculty to assist the warden by becoming resident tutors for a temporary duration.
    - v. as far as possible faculty members should dine with the hostel residents in their respective hostels to instil a feeling of confidence among the freshers.
  - f. The University and its affiliated institutes shall set up appropriate committees, including the course-in-charge, student advisor, Wardens and some senior students as its members, to actively monitor, promote and regulate healthy interaction between the freshers, junior students and senior students.
  - g. Freshers or any other student(s), whether being victims, or witnesses, in any incident of ragging, shall be encouraged to report such occurrence, and the identity of such informants shall be protected and shall not be subject to any adverse consequence only for the reason for having reported such incidents.
  - h. Each batch of freshers, on arrival at the University and its affiliated institutes, shall be divided into small groups and each such group shall be assigned to a member of the faculty, who shall interact individually with each member of the group every day for ascertaining the problems or difficulties, if any, faced by the fresher in the University and its affiliated institutes and shall extend necessary help to the fresher in overcoming the same.
  - i. It shall be the responsibility of the member of the faculty assigned to the group of freshers, to coordinate with the Wardens of the hostels and to make surprise visits to the rooms in such hostels, where a member or members of the group are lodged; and such member of faculty shall maintain a diary of his/her interaction with the freshers under his/her charge.
  - j. Freshers shall be lodged, as far as may be, in a separate hostel block, and where such facilities are not available, the University and its affiliated institutes shall ensure that access of seniors to accommodation allotted to freshers is strictly monitored by wardens, security guards and other staff of the University and its affiliated institutes.

- k. A round the clock vigil against ragging in the hostel premises, in order to prevent ragging in the hostels after the classes are over, shall be ensured by the University and its affiliated institutes.
- l. It shall be the responsibility of the parents/guardians of freshers to promptly bring any instance of ragging to the notice of the Head of the University.
- m. Every student studying in the University and its affiliated institutes and his/her parents/guardians shall provide the specific undertaking required under clauses (c), (d) and (f) of Regulation 4.1 of these Regulations at the time of admission or registration, as the case may be, during each academic year.
- n. The University and its affiliated institutes shall obtain the undertaking from every student as referred to above in clause (m) of Regulation 4.2 and maintain a proper record of the same and to ensure its safe upkeep thereof, including maintaining the copies of the undertaking in an electronic form, to be accessed easily when required either by the University or any other Committee, person or organization authorised to do so.
- o. Every student at the time of his/her registration shall inform the University and its affiliated institutes about his/her place of residence while pursuing the course of study, and in case the student has not decided his/her place of residence or intends to change the same, the details of his place of residence shall be provided immediately on deciding the same; and specifically in regard to a private commercially managed lodge or hostel where he/she has taken up residence.
- p. The Head of the University and its affiliated institutes shall, on the basis of the information provided by the student under clause (o) of Regulation 4.2, apportion sectors to be assigned to members of the faculty, so that such member of faculty can maintain vigil and report any incident of ragging outside the campus or en route while commuting to the University and its affiliated institutes using any means of transportation of students, whether public or private.
- q. The Head of the University and its affiliated institutes shall, at the end of each academic year, send a letter to the parents/guardians of the students who are completing their first year in the University and its affiliated institutes, informing them about these Regulations and any law for the time being in force prohibiting ragging and the punishments thereof as well as punishments prescribed under the penal laws, and appealing to them to impress upon their wards to desist from indulging in ragging on their return to the University and its affiliated institutes at the beginning of the academic session next.

4.3: The University and its affiliated institutes shall constitute the following bodies; namely,

- a. The University and its affiliated institutes shall constitute a Committee to be known as the Anti-Ragging Committee to be nominated and headed by the Head of the University and its affiliated institutes, and consisting of representatives of civil and police administration, local media, Non Government Organizations involved in youth activities, representatives of faculty members, representatives of parents, representatives of students belonging to the freshers' category as well as senior students, non-teaching staff; and shall have a diverse mix of membership in terms of levels as well as gender.
- b. It shall be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Committee to ensure compliance with the provisions of these Regulations as well as the provisions of any law for the time being in force concerning ragging; and also to monitor and oversee the performance of the Anti-Ragging Squad in prevention of ragging in the University and its affiliated institutes.

- c. The University and its affiliated institutes shall also constitute a smaller body to be known as the Anti- Ragging Squad to be nominated by the Head of the University and its affiliated institutes with such representation as may be considered necessary for maintaining vigil, oversight and patrolling functions and shall remain mobile, alert and active at all times. Provided that the Anti-Ragging Squad shall have representation of various members of the campus community and shall have no outside representation.
- d. It shall be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squad to be called upon to make surprise raids on hostels, and other places vulnerable to incidents of, and having the potential of, ragging and shall be empowered to inspect such places.
- e. It shall also be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squad to conduct an on-the-spot enquiry into any incident of ragging referred to it by the Head of the University and its affiliated institutes or any member of the faculty or any member of the staff or any student or any parent or guardian or any employee of a service provider or by any other person, as the case may be; and the enquiry report along with recommendations shall be submitted to the Anti-Ragging Committee for action under clause (a) of Regulation 6.1. Provided that the Anti-Ragging Squad shall conduct such enquiry observing a fair and transparent procedure and the principles of natural justice and after giving adequate opportunity to the student or students accused of ragging and other witnesses to place before it the facts, documents and views concerning the incident of ragging, and considering such other relevant information as may be required.
- f. The University and its affiliated institutes shall, at the end of each academic year, in order to promote the objectives of these Regulations, constitute a Mentoring Cell consisting of students volunteering to be Mentors for freshers, in the succeeding academic year; and there shall be as many levels or tiers of Mentors as the number of batches in the University and its affiliated institutes, at the rate of one Mentor for six freshers and one Mentor of a higher level for six Mentors of the lower level.
- g. The University shall constitute a body to be known as Monitoring Cell on Ragging, which shall coordinate with the affiliated colleges and institutions under the domain of the University to achieve the objectives of these Regulations; and the Monitoring Cell shall call for reports from the Heads of institutions in regard to the activities of the Anti-Ragging Committees, Anti - Ragging Squads, and the Monitoring Cells at the University and its affiliated institutes, and it shall also keep itself abreast of the decisions of the District level Anti-Ragging Committee headed by the District Magistrate.
- h. The Monitoring Cell shall also review the efforts made by institutions to publicize anti-ragging measures, soliciting of affidavits from parents/guardians and from students, each academic year, to abstain from ragging activities or willingness to be penalized for violations; and shall function as the prime mover for initiating action on the part of the appropriate authorities of the university for amending the Statutes or Ordinances or Bye-laws to facilitate the implementation of anti-ragging measures at the level of the University and its affiliated institutes.

4.4 The University and its affiliated institutes shall take the following other measures, namely,

- a. Each hostel or a place where groups of students reside, forming part of the University and its affiliated institutes, shall have a full-time Warden, to be appointed by the University and its affiliated institutes as per the eligibility criteria laid down for the post reflecting both the command and control aspects of maintaining discipline and preventing incidents of ragging within the hostel, as well as the softer skills of counselling and communicating with the youth outside the class-room situation; and who shall reside within the hostel, or at the very least, in the close vicinity thereof.

- b. The Warden shall be accessible at all hours and be available on telephone and other modes of communication, and for the purpose the Warden shall be provided with a mobile phone by the University and its affiliated institutes, the number of which shall be publicised among all students residing in the hostel.
- c. The University and its affiliated institutes affiliated to the University shall review and suitably enhance the powers of Wardens; and the security personnel posted in hostels shall be under the direct control of the Warden and their performance shall be assessed by them.
- d. The professional counsellors referred to under clause (n) of Regulation 4.1 of these Regulations shall, at the time of admission, counsel freshers and/or any other student(s) desiring counselling, in order to prepare them for the life ahead, particularly in regard to the life in hostels and to the extent possible, also involve parents and teachers in the counselling sessions.
- e. The University and its affiliated institutes affiliated to the University shall undertake measures for extensive publicity against ragging by means of audio-visual aids, counselling sessions, workshops, painting and design competitions among students and such other measures, as it may deem fit.
- f. In order to enable a student or any person to communicate with the Anti- Ragging Helpline, the University and its affiliated institutes affiliated to the University shall permit unrestricted access to mobile phones and public phones in hostels and campuses, other than in class-rooms, seminar halls, library, and in such other places that the University and its affiliated institutes may deem it necessary to restrict the use of phones.
- g. The faculty of the University and its affiliated institutes and its non-teaching staff, which includes but is not limited to the administrative staff, contract employees, security guards and employees of service providers providing services within the University and its affiliated institutes, shall be sensitized towards the ills of ragging, its prevention and the consequences thereof.
- h. The University and its affiliated institutes shall obtain an undertaking from every employee of the University and its affiliated institutes including all teaching and non-teaching members of staff, contract labour employed in the premises either for running canteen or as watch and ward staff or for cleaning or maintenance of the buildings/lawns and employees of service providers providing services within the University and its affiliated institutes, that he/she would report promptly any case of ragging which comes to his/her notice.
- i. The University and its affiliated institutes shall make a provision in the service rules of its employees for issuing certificates of appreciation to such members of the staff who report incidents of ragging, which will form part of their service record.
- j. The University and its affiliated institutes shall give necessary instructions to the employees of the canteens and messing, whether that of the University and its affiliated institutes or that of a service provider providing this service, or their employers, as the case may be, to keep a strict vigil in the area of their work and to report the incidents of

- ragging to the Head of the institution or members of the Anti-Ragging Squad or members of the Anti-Ragging Committee or the Wardens, as may be required.
- k. The University shall ensure that institutions imparting instruction in such courses or conducting training programme for teachers include inputs relating to anti-ragging and the appreciation of the relevant human rights, as well as inputs on topics regarding sensitization against corporal punishments and checking of bullying amongst students, so that every teacher is equipped to handle at least the rudiments of the counselling approach.
  - l. Discreet random surveys shall be conducted amongst the freshers every fortnight during the first three months of the academic year to verify and crosscheck whether the University and its affiliated institutes is indeed free of ragging or not and for the purpose the University and its affiliated institutes may design its own methodology of conducting such surveys.
  - m. The University and its affiliated institutes shall cause to have an entry, apart from those relating to general conduct and behaviour, made in the Migration/Transfer Certificate issued to the student while leaving the University and its affiliated institutes, as to whether the student has been punished for committing or abetting an act of ragging, as also whether the student has displayed persistent violent or aggressive behaviour or any inclination to harm others, during his course of study in the University and its affiliated institutes.
  - n. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations with regard to obligations and responsibilities pertaining to the authorities or members of bodies prescribed above, it shall be the general collective responsibility of all levels and sections of authorities or functionaries including members of the faculty and employees of the University and its affiliated institutes, whether regular or temporary, and employees of service providers providing service within the University and its affiliated institutes, to prevent or to act promptly against the occurrence of ragging or any incident of ragging which comes to their notice.
  - o. The Heads of institutions affiliated to the University shall, during the first three months of an academic year, submit a weekly report on the status of compliance with Anti-Ragging measures under these Regulations, and a monthly report on such status thereafter, to the Vice-Chancellor of the University.
  - p. The Vice-Chancellor shall submit fortnightly reports of the University/affiliated institutions including those of the Monitoring Cell on Ragging in case of an affiliating University, to the State Level Monitoring Cell.

5. Action to be taken by the Head of the institution

On receipt of the recommendation of the Anti Ragging Squad or on receipt of any information concerning any reported incident of ragging, the Vice Chancellor and every Head of an institution shall immediately determine if a case under the penal laws is made out and if so, either on his own or through a member of the Anti-Ragging Committee authorised by him in this behalf, proceed to file a First Information Report (FIR), within twenty four hours of receipt of such information or recommendation, with the police and local authorities, under the appropriate penal provisions relating to one or more of the following, namely;
